Sporting his brand new sunsuit, Timothy proudly sets out for his first day at school; but he quickly discovers - thanks to the obnoxious Claude - that school has its pains as well as its pleasures. However, just when things are getting just too much. Timothy finds that he has a soul mate and then life begins to look a whole lot better. Again, Rosemary Wells's furry creatures are a delight; she has great skill in portraying small animals in familiar human situations. Don't miss this one.
