There's a super sense of over-the-top fun and silliness in this witty tale. I'd love to have a junior class to read it aloud to and show-off a bit! Our hero, Alex, is confronted with two main dilemmas: Eric Polecat - '... seven feet fall. He has the arms of a gorilla and the mind of a demented elephant', and Archie Poulton, who bursts through doors - 'like a bull looking for something to gore'. For the love of Zaza, Alex hits on a solution to end both dilemmas in one tooth-jarring climax.
