Twenty-two stories of varying length are included in this quality production. 'The Lambton Worm', 'The Wise Men of Gotham' and 'The Frog Prince' make an expected appearance, but there are some unexpected gems like 'King of the Cats' and 'Monday, Tuesday'. Crossley-Holland's direct approach to story-telling makes the collection very accessible to youngsters, but they might need a bit of a prod to get them going. Folklore material of this quality deserves a higher profile in the classroom.
